Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davis are spending several weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Valen-tine are on a trip to North Carolina.

Mrs. Ada Sweeney is visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley L. Brown. Mrs. Harold Stanley is ill at her home, Mrs. Ruby Huston, of Bryant Pond, is caring for her.

Robert Scott has returned home after surgery at the Maine Medical Center, Portland.

Albert Sumner is home on leave after which he will report at Long Beach, California, on March 25.

A reception was held at Sunday Inn Sunday afternoon for Mr. and Mrs. Ronald York (Linda Morton).

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gunther brought their infant son, Eric Hoyt, home from the hospital on Monday.

Albert S. Grover is a patient at Norway Memorial Hospital following injuries received at the Sunday River Skiway.

About twelve inches of snow in two storms during the last week covered all signs of "early spring" outlook.

Mrs. Hilda Donahue is in Lewiston today. She will visit her son, Errol, who is a patient at the CMG Hospital this week.

Mrs. Grace Bartlett had as guests over the week end to celebrate her 80th birthday, her son, Wilbert, of Bangor, and her grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bartlett, and son, Wayne, of Wiscasset.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The biggest snow storm of the year left about a foot of snow. Some of the dirt roads had softened up in places and this made the plowing more difficult. All of the roads have been plowed and can be traveled over. The two storms in two days should be a big help to the ski areas and spring skiing.

The new chairman of the board of selectmen is Norman Greig. The board will be making the appointments to the various offices at the March 11 meeting.

A form letter is being sent out this week to all delinquent personal and poll taxes for 1962 and earlier. The old tax bills will either have to be paid or the matter will be turned over to legal authorities. I have held off on this action as long as I could in the hope of saving the delinquent taxpayers the extra cost. Unfortunately many remain unpaid so I have no alternative.

The voting list will be revised during the next month. The current list was printed in 1962 and there have been numerous changes since then. Over 130 people have registered as voters of Bethel since June of 1962 and a great many have moved away or should be removed from the list. There are 1390 voters on the voting list right now but the revised list will probably have around 1325 voters.

Michael Houlihan

SKIING EXCELLENT AT AREA SLOPES

Sunday River Skiway reports excellent conditions on all trails following Tuesday's snow storm which deposited 12 inches on top of Monday's four-inch accumulation.

Mt. Abram Ski Slopes reported today that week end conditions will be good to excellent on all trails.

SHERIFF ANNOUNCES BID FOR SECOND TERM

Oxford County Sheriff, Stephen R. Conant, announced today that he will be a candidate for a second term. He is seeking the re-election on his record, and the record of his department, during his first year in office. A year marked with progress and improvement in County law enforcement.

He calls attention to the splendid spirit of cooperation between the Oxford County Sheriff's Department, State and Municipal police and all other branches of law enforcement working within this County.

The sheriff points to the first general training session in the history of the department which he conducted for all his deputies early last year. All deputies were given instruction in basic law enforcement to better prepare them for increased responsibility. The present policy is for individual deputies to assume more initiative in the investigation and handling of cases. The sheriff now expects all complaints to be promptly investigated without waiting for his official sanction.

All deputies within the County who are active in criminal law enforcement, who serve as turnkeys at the jail, or who occasionally serve on traffic control are now equipped with the regulation uniform adopted by the Maine Sheriff's Association. This uniform equipment has been supplied by the deputies themselves, at no additional cost to county government.

Administration of the County Jail is an important part of the job as High Sheriff, and here also there have been significant improvements, both in the jail itself and in its operation.

Sheriff Conant, age 48, and a former Maine State Police sergeant, retired from that department in 1962 after 20 years service. He is a native of Fort Fairfield and graduated from high school there in 1933. He attended Bates Business College, Augusta, in 1933 and 1934.

20 SECONDS with the NAZARENE

That day on Calvary there was darkness from noon until three o'clock. During those dark hours Christ cried out: "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

We do not understand these words. They are hard to explain. But they tell us something of how far Christ was willing to go to redeem fallen humanity—even me.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR...

To the Editor
The Bethel Citizen
Bethel, Maine

Dear Sir:

In this column which you so kindly provide for your readers, may I compliment the Superintendent of Schools, S. A. D. No. 22, not only for the fine and clear reports he offered the towns of Bethel, Gilead, and Newry, but also for the article on school costs in the CITIZEN, March 6th, of last week.

I am sure all of us appreciate the method of ascertaining school costs which was outlined therein. However, it does appear that the per-pupil costs, paid Bethel schools, as tuition, by the towns of Gilead and Newry, at least, somewhat exceed the overall per-pupil costs estimated by the superintendent. It is said that these are about $235.00 per pupil. But Gilead has paid Bethel an elementary tuition of $450.00 for 25 pupils, or $260.00 per pupil, while Newry has paid about $300.00 for 12 student. It would appear that in arriving at the ultimate cost of education in Bethel elementary schools the factors of transportation and administration were included in arriving at the total per-pupil cost, whereas Gilead and Newry pay these items independently. Deducting them, the overall per-pupil cost is $227.00. So Gilead pays an excess cost of some $33.00; while, with fewer students, Newry pays an extra $35.00, or so.

In these times the few tax-payers, both resident and non-resident, feel obliged somehow to equivoque with reason the sum of their taxes in the various towns.

And so it is with a concept of moderation that I submit these views and statistics for the consideration of not only the Bethel, Gilead, and Newry taxpayers, but also for all fair-minded people who may be interested in abstract fair play.

With respect to a far-revered U. S. Supreme Court decision, or so, may I say that a small town should determine in the light of its own best interests the practical course it should follow without reference or involvement in what may be best described as transitory or academic polemics. For that reason I deplore the present trend made in reference to school Prayers by the Maine Attorney General, Frank Hancock, as being unwarranted and unnecessary. And if the age old argument of Church vs. State is to be employed to prevent public accommodation of private schools in this time and age, then may I say that the fortunes and even destiny of men depend on whimsy.

Samuel F. McCoy

Dear Sir:

Now, that I have had time to think, I'll attempt to answer the many questions I've had asked me, relative to the before-mentioned news item. An official letter has been sent to the Lewiston Sun, but it seems apparent that unofficial news items make better reading.

The increase in the tax rate can not be affixed until all property is assessed. We do have an increase in appropriations but we also have a possibility of increase in taxable property. So, until the assessors have completed their tasks, who is to say what the tax rate will be.

As far as the school budget—that is every town's cry. There was a large overdraft this past year, largely due to the fact that the budget recommendations were not accepted and a cut of over $2,000.00 was made. For one, give recognition to our present superintendent, in that he does not ask for more than he considers absolutely necessary. It was an unfortunate event that the voters took pleasure in cutting his recommendations. As to the future school situation, it is no secret that many in town desire to send their children to the private school in Gorham, N. H. If it were possible, we could save many dollars, as their tuition is $100.00 per pupil against the approx. $250.00 per pupil cost in Bethel. However, it is not the feeling of the majority that Bethel has "an arbitrary tuition rate" and, unfortunately, one can't control the pen of another. If this change of schooling should ever come about, it would be because we wish to save ourselves tax dollars and not because we think we are getting unfairly charged by Bethel (About 60% of our entire appropriations will go for schools this year.)

In reference to the "State Legislature body," the writer acknowledged that was a mistake and said a correction would be made via the Lewiston Sun, but it has not appeared as yet.

As far as the remark relative to the "unexplained" expenditures in the selectmen's report, anyone knows when he accepts public office he has immediately opened the door to ridicule. However, everyone also knows that the selectmen's books are town property and can be viewed by any resident of the town. When the statement "it's all in the distribution book" was made and a loud "What's that?" came out from the questioner, what can one expect? I hope this answers the many question, and heals any unnecessary wounds caused by the pen of one.

Dear Sir:

I would like to add a footnote to Henry Westleigh's letter of this week. Too many of us do not have the proud spirit for our town that Henry has and we should do something about it. I am a resident of Connecticut and a taxpayer, both in Connecticut and Maine. (Owning property at Locke Mills.) If you have a Chamber of Commerce they should do everything in their power to let the people everywhere know of the town of Bethel. One good way is to contact the Chamber of Commerce in towns called Bethel. We have a Bethel, Conn., and there are many more throughout the nation. Maybe (as I have been told) the people of Bethel and Maine in general do not want people from outside the borders of Maine to become permanent residents. I hope this is not true as I have observed a great deal of poverty in Maine that can be overcome by bringing new business to Maine and business to the plants already in Maine. I remarked to the Governor of Maine in a recent letter that of all the "ads" I saw in the New York papers advertising New England states, they were all advertising but Maine. My letter was turned over to the Development Commission and the answer was that they did not have enough money to advertise every place. It is an old saying that it takes money to make money. If the State can't or won't that leaves it up to the people.

The town of Bethel, Maine, is a very nice little town and I hope it will always retain its niceness but no one can deny that the property of the town has been added to by people from out of town and the state. I know for instance of one couple from Connecticut who spend most of the summer at the Bethel Inn. There must be others that do this also. People such as these add to the prosperity of Bethel and more can be induced to follow their example if they only knew about Bethel and its niceness. Anybody who talks to me about Maine knows how I can bend an ear in favor of a trip up there."

Your Chamber of Commerce people can do a great deal by encouraging the Governor to expand the information about Maine into the various newspapers. Information booths are good in their own right but people have to be brought to Maine first.

We people from Connecticut (there are three family groups here) who own property in Maine and pay the same taxes as everyone else but are denied the right to vote because we don't live six months of the year in Maine and when we go hunting or fishing we have to pay a non-resident license for the privilege, are the most ardent boosters of Maine you ever saw. People are starting to look the other way when they see us coming because they know we start talking about Maine at the drop of a hat. We never lose an opportunity to extol the beauty of Maine to anybody or everybody whether they want to listen or not. And we back our talk with pictures not only warm summer scenes but big hardy winter snows. Speaking of Bethel being a rich town I disagree with that because any town that would charge $15.00 a week to a religious group to hold services in the town community room must be hard up especially in these times when ecumenical talks are taking place within all religious faiths.

These people are your friends and neighbors and fellow taxpayers. The very people who swell that congregation in the summer months are the very ones, by their buying power, are helping to keep the taxes of Bethel down.

Let's see what go-getters you have in your Chamber of Commerce.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scouts met at the Legion Rooms last March 8. They made invitations for the Girl Scout mother and daughter banquet. Also worked on sewing and cooking badges. March 10th meeting was cancelled because of weather. So we held it Mar 11th. We studied our laws and sang songs that we are going to sing at the banquet.—Scribe Elaine Conner.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank my friends and neighbors for the many cards and letters I received while in the hospital. Also for the food that was sent in while I was away and since my return home. And a special thank you to those who kept a watchful eye on my family while I was away. It was all greatly appreciated.
